Psalm 103:13

Just as a father has compassion on his children, so the LORD has compassion on those who fear Him.

- God's compassion starts with God as Father.
- God's compassion requires being known.
- God's compassion doesn't socially distance.
- God's compassion is relentlessly tender.

THE PROMISE:

GOD HAS COMPASSION ON YOU.

THE PRACTICE:

I CONFESS, THIS IS ME.
I NEED YOUR COMPASSION.

RENEWAL: What's been the most difficult part of this pandemic for you personally? How have you responded to that difficulty? How does seeing God as your Father change the way you interact with Him? Is it hard to show yourself compassion? Is it hard to receive it from others? In what area of our life do you need the compassion of God? How can your group help you accept the compassion of God?

OUR VISION: By 2026, we will be having thousands of surprisingly easy-to-start conversations about Jesus all over our city because we are convinced, where God has us is where Jesus is. Share your stories of conversations about Jesus with us at realstory@northwestbible.org.
