Matthew 28:16-20

MATTHEW 28:16-20

Then the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted. Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

QUESTIONS: Where does God have you GOing (specific calling/sphere of influence)? What do you believe about yourself in that place (equipped or outmatched)? When you think about having conversations about Jesus, have you felt intimidated, ill-equipped, or unworthy? How does the promise (in Matthew 28:20) that "Jesus will be with us always" change how you engage those feelings as you navigate conversations about Jesus? How will you navigate what is next for you as you seek to live out the Great Commission?

OUR VISION: By 2026, we will be having thousands of surprisingly easy-to-start conversations about Jesus all over our city because we are convinced, where God has us is where Jesus is. Share your stories of conversations about Jesus with us at realstory@northwestbible.org.
