

HEALING the MAN BORN BLIND

JOHN 9:1-41

JESUS WANTS PEOPLE TO SEE HIM

THE DISCIPLES

THE NEIGHBORS

THE PARENTS

THE PHARISEES

THE MAN BORN BLIND

WHAT DOES JESUS USE TO HELP PEOPLE SEE THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD?

WHAT KEEPS PEOPLE BLINDED TO THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD?

RENEWAL QUESTIONS: What is the most countercultural aspect of the story of Jesus healing the man born blind? Why? Is it significant or surprising that Jesus uses a man born blind in order to help others see the light of the world? Why or why not? In this story, what keeps people blinded to the light of the world? Which of the 5 groups (disciples, neighbors, parents, pharisees, & the man born blind) and their barriers to belief do you relate to most? Do you believe God wants to use your story? This week, reflect on your own story and prayerfully consider how God may be calling you to invite others into the unexpected joy of desperate dependence on Jesus.

OUR VISION: By 2026, we will be having thousands of surprisingly easy-to-start conversations about Jesus all over our city because we are convinced, where God has us is where Jesus is. Share your stories of conversations about Jesus with us in our Conversations Hub at northwestbible.org/conversations.
