

JESUS UNVEILED

I am THE DOOR

JOHN 10:1-11, 19-21

JESUS IS THE DOOR TO...

a "long" life

a "good" life

RENEWAL QUESTIONS: How does our culture define a good life? How do our cultural standards of a “good life” compare to abundant life in Jesus Christ? Every day we go through many doors—mentally, emotionally, physically, and spiritually. How do the choices and doors we take daily influence our relationship with God and one another? There are thieves and robbers all around us. What are some of the ways they tempt you toward other doors? Jesus Christ is the door to a long and good life. This week, how are you practically entering through the door called Jesus? A prayer: Jesus, you are the door to a good, long life.

OUR VISION: By 2026, we will be having thousands of surprisingly easy-to-start conversations about Jesus all over our city because we are convinced, where God has us is where Jesus is. Share your stories of conversations about Jesus with us in our Conversations Hub at northwestbible.org/conversations.
