RENEWAL QUESTIONS: What are some general societal attitudes you've heard about God and self? How do these attitudes extend to how we treat others? What type of audience was the book of Genesis written to? How does this audience influence the message of Genesis 1? What is significant about Moses claiming there is only one creator God? Why? According to Scripture, what is unique about human beings? How might this influence us on a daily basis? This week, how will you draw near and respond to God as the creator and ruler of your life?
