GOD CALLS TO BLESS

The Genesis of Blessing

ABRAM'S FAITH JOURNEY BEGINS

GENESIS 12:1-20

RISKS

you must be comfortable with being uncomfortable

REWARDS

the more we give of ourselves, the more we get of God

RERUNS

a failure to obey is a failure of faith

RENEWAL QUESTIONS: How does our culture view risks? How do we tend to decide which risks are worth taking, and which risks are not? What are some of the risks Abram took to follow God's call to bless? For those who want to follow Jesus, why must we get comfortable being uncomfortable? Though Abram was promised land, descendants, and impact—his reward was ultimately God himself. What can we learn from Abram's faith journey? Failure of faith is a failure to obey God. What can we learn from Abram's reruns in Genesis 12:10-20? This week, where and how will you take a risk because of Jesus?

OUR VISION: By 2026, we will be having thousands of surprisingly easy-to-start conversations about Jesus all over our city because we are convinced, where God has us is where Jesus is. Share your stories of conversations about Jesus with us in our Conversations Hub at northwestbible.org/conversations.
