INVESTING IN OTHERS

1 THESSALONIANS 2:7-12

LOVING LEADERS GIVE COSTLY GIFTS

Loving leaders.

Costly gifts.

RENEWAL QUESTIONS: What does it mean to make disciples? Why is making disciples an important aspect of our faith? To be a disciple maker is to be a loving leader. Have you experienced a loving leader who invested in your life and pointed you to Jesus? If so, who and when? What does it mean that “loving leaders give costly gifts?” Loving leaders invest their lives with others for the Gospel’s sake. What might it look like for us to give of our lives for the sake of the Gospel? This week, consider how you can intentionally be a part of making disciples of Jesus. Who is on your heart? What is your next step?
