

TEACH TRULY

1 TIMOTHY 1

THE CHURCH IS JESUS' CHOSEN BUILDING
TO HOLD THE TRUTH BEAUTIFULLY.

WHAT WE TEACH

Jesus and his overflowing grace and perfect patience

HOW WE TEACH

In accordance with the gospel of the glory of God

WHY WE TEACH

For the purpose of love

RENEWAL QUESTIONS: According to our culture, what is the purpose of the Church? How does this compare or contrast Paul's definition in 1 Timothy 3:14-15? The Church is Jesus' chosen building to hold the truth beautifully. Where do we find truth? What ought to be our focus when teaching truth? What does the phrase, "not all teaching is created equal" mean? How can we ensure we are consuming orthodox teaching, and why does it matter? Paul states that believers must live in accordance with the Gospel. How does sound, orthodox teaching impact how believers ought to live? This week, reflect on why we teach. The goal of our instruction is love—how will love for God and for others shape the way you 'hold the truth beautifully' throughout the week?
