

ALLOWING YOUR PAST TO DEFINE WHO YOU ARE TODAY CAN BE DESCRIBED AS _____

HOW COULD WE DEFINE THE FOLLOWING WORDS IN ROMANS 5:1

- Justified
- Faith
- Peace with God

1. REJOICE IN WHAT _____
(VERSE 5:2)

What does it mean to have access and to stand in grace?

2. REJOICE IN WHAT _____
(VERSE 5:3-9)

What gives us the ability to rejoice in our sufferings? What can happen in a believer's life as a result of suffering? What does Jesus do for us when we are weak? What is the context in which Paul uses the word "LOVE" in verse 8?

3. REJOICE IN WHAT _____
(VERSE 5:10-11)

THE CURE FOR IMPOSTER SYNDROME IS _____

How should we respond to Romans 5:1-11? (THE FOUR Rs)

RENEWAL QUESTIONS: How have you allowed your past to define who you are today, good or bad? In your own words, how would you reword this definition to describe Desperate Dependence on Jesus? What from your past may be holding you back from fully experiencing the Gospel today? Has there been a time past or current, where you feel you don't deserve God's grace and love? In Romans 2 the words "access" and "stand" were used to describe and expected and permanent guest, how should we respond in light of this? When have you experienced God's presence in the midst of hardship or suffering? What was the result after the fact? Why do you think Paul waited until verse 5:8 to talk about God's love for us? We are reminded to Rejoice, Remind, Retell, and Respond? In your own words, how would you redefine these works and how can you put them into practice?
