

CULTIVATE SUBMISSION

MATTHEW 21:1-17

JESUS...

- INSISTS He is the King
- INVITES you to make Him King

WHICH IS YOUR RESPONSE TO JESUS' KINGSHIP?

- THE CROWD with their SHALLOW RECOGNITION
- THE RELIGIOUS LEADERS with their DEEP INDIGNATION
- THE CHILDREN with their JOYFUL EXALTATION

RENEWAL QUESTIONS: What picture/story do you often have when you think about Jesus coming into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday? Who is Jesus to you -- is he simply a friend, comforter, provider; or is Jesus both GOD AND KING in all aspects of your life? In what areas of your life have you responded to Jesus like the crowds -- with shallow recognition, immediately abandoning Jesus when hardship comes? In what areas of your life have you responded to Jesus like the religious leaders -- with deep indignation, angry at how Jesus insists to "clean house" in all areas of your life? As you consider Jesus as your Crucified King, in what ways can you cultivate submission with grateful and joyful exultation in all areas of your life?
