

GET READY

CONVERSATIONS ABOUT JESUS FROM LUKE

JESUS SPEAKS NO MATTER WHAT

LUKE 4:14-44

WHEN TAKING A RISK FOR JESUS...

- Be ready for a range of responses
- Be ready to keep proclaiming

RENEWAL QUESTIONS: Read Luke 4:16-21. What observations can you make from these verses? What is the significance of Jesus reading Isaiah 61? How do the people respond to Jesus (Luke 4:22-30)? How can we seek to be ready for a range of responses when we are proclaiming the gospel? What do we learn about the power and authority of Jesus, as described in Luke 4:31-41? Like Jesus, as believers we are called to share the good news of the gospel with the world. How does this calling tie into our vision of having thousands of surprisingly easy to start conversations about Jesus? This week, how will you step out in faith to share the gospel? Make a plan—who will you have a conversation about Jesus with? If you aren't quite ready, how will you seek to grow in this area?
