

EVERYBODY IS INVITED

CONVERSATIONS ABOUT JESUS FROM LUKE

JESUS, THE ULTIMATE HOST

LUKE 14:1-24

JESUS IS THE ULTIMATE HOST BECAUSE HE IS THE COMPASSIONATE, HUMBLE, GENEROUS KING.

APPLICATION:

- Jesus is the compassionate, humble, generous host; you are the inviter.
- Jesus invites those who need compassion, humility and generosity.
- Jesus wants you to have the joy of inviting people into desperate dependence on Him.

RENEWAL QUESTIONS: Jesus is the ultimate inviter. How is this on display in Luke 14:1-24? Compassion supersedes our self-interest. How does this impact our ability and desire to invite others to know Jesus? In Luke 14, the invitations are eventually given to the poor, the blind, and the lame, because the host desires a full house. How might this challenge us in our own humility and generosity? Jesus is the compassionate, humble, generous host, and we are the invitees. What then is our mission on behalf of our good host? This week, consider the ultimate inviter and pray for the Holy Spirit to bring you into conversations about Jesus. Who will you seek to invite into the unexpected joy of desperate dependence on Jesus?
