on today's lesson.

LEADER BIBLE STUDY

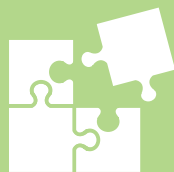

Jesus chose twelve disciples, ordinary men with ordinary jobs, and invited them to share His extraordinary message with the world. Peter and Andrew were simple fishermen, working hard through the night and coming up empty. They were tired. They were discouraged. But when Jesus told them to try again, Peter chose to trust Him.

In this week's lesson, Peter and Andrew chose to follow Jesus. As leaders, we get to model that same trust in Jesus for the children we serve. We often find ourselves in the same place as Peter and Andrew: weary, unsure, or feeling like we've tried over and over. Yet Jesus still invites us to trust Him. Preschoolers learn this best not from explanations, but from watching our calm trust, our obedience, and our joy in following Jesus.

Every moment we spend with the children we serve, and their families, is a chance to show them that following Jesus is worth it, even when we don't fully understand what He's doing. As you teach preschoolers, remember: Jesus didn't choose perfect people; He chose willing people.

Peter trusted Jesus with tired hands and discouraged feelings, and Jesus used him in amazing ways. He will use us too!

BABIES & TWOS BIBLE LESSON

Peter and Andrew were brothers and fishermen. They used big nets and a wooden boat to catch fish. After a long night of fishing, they didn't catch anything.

Jesus was teaching nearby. More people kept coming to hear Jesus teach. When Jesus finished teaching, He went to Andrew and Peter and asked them to go fishing again.

Peter had tried and tried to catch fish. He didn't think he should keep trying, but he listened to Jesus. This time, they caught so many fish, it filled their boat!

THREES & FOURS BIBLE LESSON

Peter and Andrew were brothers and fishermen. After a long night of fishing, they caught nothing. Peter and Andrew were busy sorting their nets when they heard Jesus teaching people nearby. More and more people came to listen to Jesus. Jesus asked Peter if he would take Him out in his boat, so that He could speak to all the people.

When Jesus finished teaching the people, He asked Peter to go fishing. Peter didn't think this made any sense. He had fished all night and caught nothing, but because Jesus asked him, he did it. Jesus told Peter to throw the net over the other side of the boat. He caught so many fish, He had to call his friends to come and help!

When they arrived back on land, Jesus invited the fishermen to leave their boats and follow Him. Jesus told them it was time to fish for people and share God's love with them. Straight away, the fishermen left everything behind to follow Jesus.
