

KING SAUL

1 SAMUEL 8-10

TWOS & YOUNGER

God wanted to be the people's King. But the people wanted a human king like everyone else. Samuel told them it was a bad idea, but they did not listen. One day, Saul lost his donkeys. He looked everywhere, but he could not find them. Saul went to Samuel's house to ask for help. He had a big surprise. Samuel had a special message for Him from God. Samuel said, "You will be the king." The people were very happy. Saul was tall, handsome and strong. They now had a king like everyone else. But Samuel knew that trouble would soon come.

THREES & FOURS

When Samuel was old, the people said, "We want a king like everyone else." God wanted to be their King But the people wanted a human king like everyone else. Samuel told them it would be a bad idea, but they did not listen.

One day, a man called Saul lost his donkeys. He looked everywhere, but he could not find them. He walked further and further and was ready to give up. His servant said they should go ask Samuel for help and to pray for them.

Saul went to Samuel's house. He had a big surprise. Samuel already knew his name, about his donkey and had a special message for him. Samuel said, "You will be the king." Samuel anointed Saul as king.

The people were very happy. Saul was tall, handsome and strong. They now had a king like everyone else. The people were happy, but Samuel knew that trouble would soon come.
