

SAMUEL ANOINTS DAVID
1 SAMUEL 16

TWOS & YOUNGER

King Saul began to do bad things. God told Samuel it was time to find a new king. God told Samuel to go to Bethlehem and find a man named Jesse. One of Jesse's sons would be the next king. Samuel asked Jesse to bring his sons to him so Samuel could anoint one of them to be king. Jesse's first son was tall, strong, and handsome. He looked like a king. But God said "No." Jesse brought his other sons, but God kept saying, "No." Samuel asked Jesse if he had any other sons. Jesse said, "Only the youngest, in the fields looking after the sheep." David was just a boy. Nobody thought he could be king. But as soon as Samuel saw David, he knew he was the one God had chosen. God saw David's heart. Samuel took oil and anointed David. David would later become the king.

THREES & FOURS

Not long after Saul became king, he started to become proud. He stopped obeying God and began to do his own thing. Saul thought he could do what he wanted as long as he said sorry afterwards. Samuel was sad. God told Samuel it was time to find a new king.

God told Samuel to go to Bethlehem and find a man named Jesse. Samuel asked Jesse to bring his sons to him so Samuel could anoint one of them to be the next king. Jesse's first son was tall, strong, and handsome. Samuel thought he looked like a king. But God said, "No." Jesse brought his other sons, but God kept saying, "No, not this one."

Samuel asked Jesse if he had any other sons, and Jesse said, "Only the youngest, but he is out in the fields looking after the sheep." David was just a boy. Nobody thought he could be king. Still, Samuel told Jesse to bring David to him.

As soon as Samuel saw David, he knew David was the one God had chosen. God saw David's heart. Samuel took oil and anointed David. David did not become king right away, but he knew God had a special plan for him.
